

PERMISSION TO PUBLISH RELEASE FORM

Students may participate in the activities listed below as part of the instructional program. Under no circumstances will identifying material such as personal phone numbers, home addresses, or individual pictures accompanied by students' names be posted to the Internet or the District Web Site. Student art work and written work may, with permission, be identified with student first names (elementary) or student full names (middle school and high school).

My son or daughter has permission to (check those that apply):

- Have his/her art work published on the District Web Site (www.wrcs.k12.mi.us)
 - May include student's first name, last initial only (elementary and middle school)
 - May include both student's first and last name (high school only)
- Have his/her written work published on the District Web Site (www.wrcs.k12.mi.us)
 - May include student's first, last initial only (elementary and middle school)
 - May include both student's first name and last names (high school only)
- Have his/her group name published on the district website (student of the week, award winner, etc.)
- Appear in a group photo (3 or more students) published on the district website
- Appear in a video that may be shown on cable or for a district-produced program
- Appear in a photo published in district or school publications
- Appear in a photo that may be sent to and published in local newspapers

I authorize permission for publishing as checked above until the end of the school year.
